

The Alumni Association

Current Class Notes

Alisa Peskin-Shepherd (LAW '85), family law attorney and principal of Transitions Legal PLLC in Birmingham, Michigan, was appointed to the newly created board for the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals, an international community of legal, mental health and financial professionals working together to create client-centered processes for resolving conflict.